What happens in the show?

Who is in the show?

In the show, the actors play different characters. But each actor has one “main” character.

This is Alice

- Alice works at a Recycling Centre
- When she is working, she often imagines herself being interviewed on a TV chat show
- She wears a yellow jacket without sleeves
- She has a son, called Luke

This is Stelle

- Stelle is a social media influencer
- She has a twin, called Effie
- In the show, Stelle is often on the phone to her twin
- In the show, Stelle also makes videos for her Instagram account

This is Zelda

- Zelda is a filmmaker
- She is pregnant
- In the show, Zelda is often talking to her baby

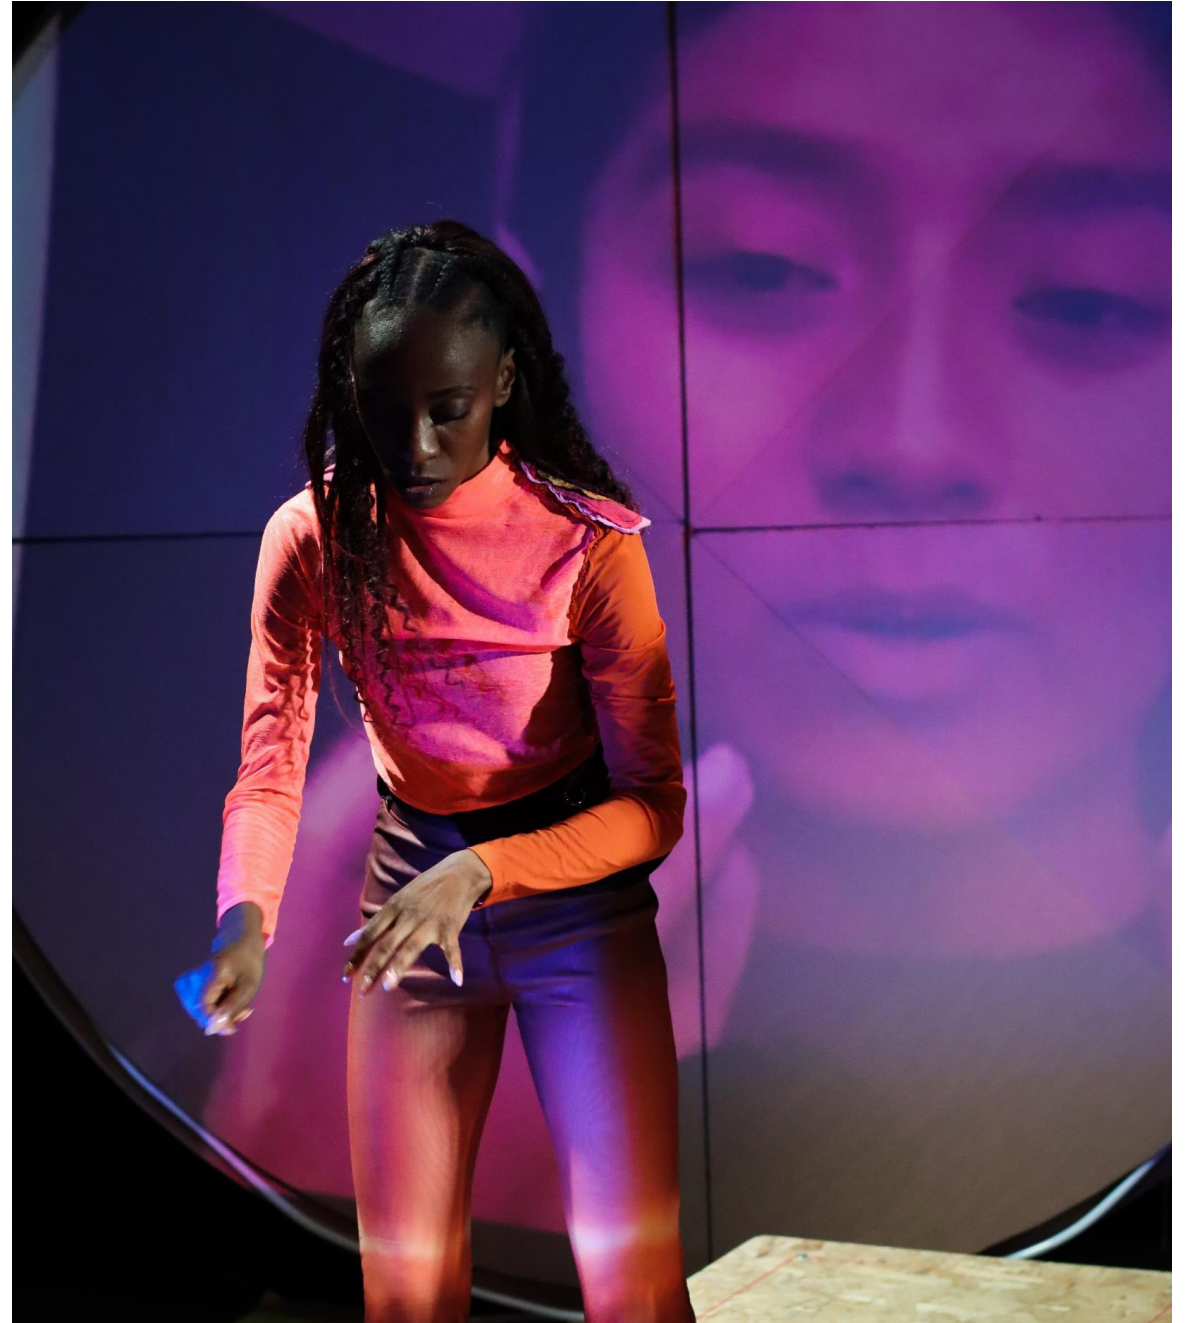

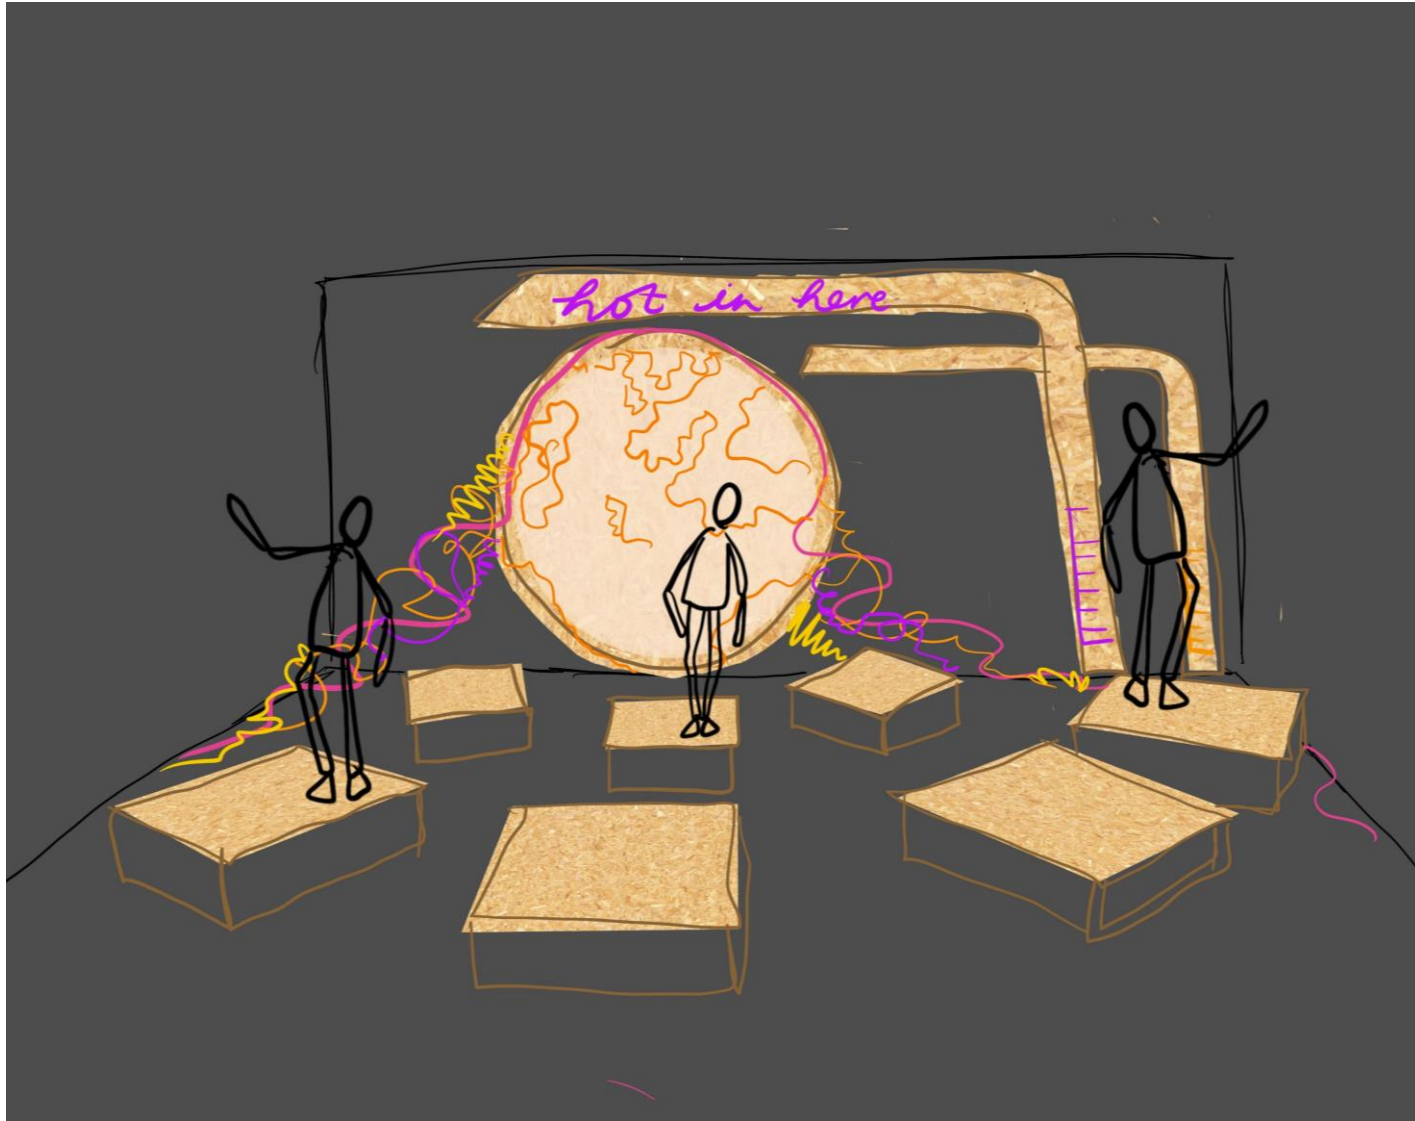

In the show, the actors also play story-tellers and different characters in each other's scenes.

This is a video interview

- In the show, there are video interviews with people who take climate action
- These people are from countries around the world
- The video interviews are projected onto the set

This is a drawing of the set of H^OT IN H^ER^E.

In the show, you will see seven wooden tiles on the floor. These tiles turn the energy of the actors' movement into electricity.

Our show has a “relaxed environment”

This means you can:

- Leave & re-enter at any time
- Move around or make noise
- Eat or drink during the show
- Use your phone (e.g. for magnification)

We hope you enjoy the show!
